Art Unit: 3726

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-4, 6-21, 23 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claim 1, lines 12- to the end of the claim, Claim 21, lines 4-10 and Claim 24, line 2 are considered to contain new matter. There is no disclosure of forming a pocketed coil with different pitches in a middle portion between end portions of the spring (Claim 24). There is no support in the specification for altering the positions of the coiling elements as the wire is fed through the coiling section, nor is there support for using the programmable control system to alter these positions as the wire is fed through the coiling station (Claims 1 and 21). Support could not be found the programmable control system having a profile selection system that selects at least one of the data arrays or tables (Claim 1).

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not
